

Description

Neat and simplified artistic variation of the typography, "60", partly embeded with the original logo of HKPA shows a smooth compatibility of the passing on values and the emerging ideas of the new generations. The going on and interconnected flow of the logo emphasises the importance of unity of the association. The brush stroke in the logo indicates the art of physiotherapy and possibility to further elaborate in the future.