

Description

The circles represent the interconnection of physiotherapists from different sectors, and provide services to people in the community in Hong Kong. Contrasting and cheerful colours indicate the youthfulness and energetic sensibility of the association. The words "P" "a" are embeded in the logo in an artistic sense.