

HKPA Physiotherapy Student Volunteers Program (2025-2026)

The Hong Kong Physiotherapy Association (HKPA) emphasizes the importance of all-roundedness of physiotherapy students, and we are pleased to announce the HKPA Physiotherapy Student Volunteers Program (2025-2026) is now open for application.

Objectives:

The objective of the HKPA physiotherapy student volunteers program is to provide opportunities for students in entry-level physiotherapy programs to network with experienced physiotherapists in a specialty area and engage in the work and activities of Executive Committee (EC), Specialty Group (SG) and Working Group (WG) of HKPA. The program is intended to promote both personal and professional growth of the participating students.

Program content and duration

- The program duration is from 31 Jan 2025 to 31 Jan 2026
- Students could apply as HKPA student volunteers. Throughout the year, student volunteers could support and assist the HKPA, by assisting the HKPA EC/ SG/ WG (Organizational chart:
<https://www.hongkongpa.com.hk/about-hkpa/organizational-chart/>)
- Upon completion of the program, all participating students will receive a certificate of appreciation issued by HKPA.

Expectations:

During the program, the participating student is expected to:

- support the planning and implementation of activities organized by the HKPA (e.g. annual conference, continuing education courses, community exercise classes, etc.);
- network with the members of the EC/SG/WG of HKPA;
- actively promote HKPA and its activities to fellow students.
- Complimentary registration of the HKPA annual conference and activities organized by the EC/SG/WG will be provided during the program period.

Eligibility:

1. Students currently enrolled in an entry-level physiotherapy program offered by one of the following institutions:
